Soft Adventures at Museums & Historic Sites

Why not make it a family adventure project to visit all of them in North Brevard?

Date visited		Soft Adventures	A brief description. Please visit the website for details.
		Valiant Air Command Warbird Museum	The Valiant Air Command Warbird museum has exhibits, displays, artifacts and vintage warbirds from WWI through the present. It sponsors an air show in March, monthly fly-in breakfasts, offers C-47 & bi-plane rides, and has a unique gift shop.
		American Police Hall of Fame & Museum	The mission of the American Police Hall of Fame & Museum is to promote and support the law enforcement profession. It includes a memorial to law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty, many hands-on exhibits, a unique gift shop and a shooting range.
		Astronaut Hall of Fame	The Astronaut Hall of Fame is part of the Kennedy Space Center Visitors Center. Explore a rare collection of astronaut artifacts, including the world's largest collection of personal memorabilia. See remarkable displays, exhibits and tributes dedicated to these heroes. Gift shop.
		North Brevard Historical Museum	In 1966 local residents formed the Historical Society of North Brevard. They collected a wide variety of historical artifacts, photographs and written records and display them in this museum. Displays range from the original casts of the Mercury astronaut handprints to wedding dresses.
		The Historic Pritchard House	The Pritchard House is a fine example of Queen Anne architecture; built for Captain James Pritchard in 1891. The authentically restored house is completely furnished with period furniture, accessories and interesting collections.
		U.S. Space Walk of Fame Museum	Space suits, flight manuals, flown-in-space gear, ground support equipment, to-scale rocket models and lots of personal memorabilia donated by former space workers. Veterans of the space program serve as knowledgeable guides.
		Harry T. & Harriette V. Moore Memorial Park	Museum & Cultural Center. Celebrating the contributions of pioneering civil rights leaders Harry and Harriette Moore, the first (1951) active civil rights workers murdered in the modern black civil rights movement.
